Actions taken report by IQAC based on the resolutions of the meeting dated 03/01/2022

Key Initiatives	Outcomes
Mentor-mentee system initiated	The institution took another important initiative, guided by IQAC—an effective mentor-mentee system, in which the faculties have been allotted with the duty of mentoring assigned students. The allotment, to maintain robustness and transparency, has been done based on roll numbers. The system being new, it has been decided that only the second semester students would be covered under its ambit until further notice. The mentor-mentee allotment, done department-wise, maintained a ratio of 40:1. The system was introduced in the routine and started w.e.f 04.02.2022
Add-on course on Psychological Counselling	To help the students navigate through the anxieties that were the after-effects of one-year-and-a-half lockdown, and help them take the examination anxieties in their stride, the institution conducted an add-on course on Psychological counseling under the able guidance of Smt Pritha Chatterjee, Assistant Professor, Dept of English and assisted by Smt Mala Saha, Smt Madhumita Khan and Smt Suchismita Sarkar from 22 nd January to 2 nd February 2022. The course was immensely successful
AQAR 2018-2019 and 2019-2020	Preparations of AQAR 2018-2019 and 2019-2020 have been accelerated after a pandemic-imposed-long hiatus and IQAC committee members are working fast to make it effective.
Online classes to resume	Government of West Bengal vide G.O. 753/XVII-ISS/2M/22/2020 dated 02/01/2022 to combat the new variant omicron, stated that the restriction measures will be in force till 15/01/2022. The classes switched over to online mode from 02/01/2022. The Government of West Bengal vide G.O no 753/XX-ISS/2M-22/2020 dated 15/01/2020 extended the effect of the previous order till 31/01/2022. The classes therefore went on online.
